the normal amount of fat excreted should not exceed 7 grams of fat per 24-hour period

With advances in ultrasound and other imaging techniques, it may be possible to make a rapid definitive diagnosis of a benign disorder thus avoiding surgery or unnecessary antibiotics.