53a-48(b) provides for the specific defense of "renunciation." Connecticut law provides a defense like this to trigger after a conspiracy has been established and is in motion.

The demand for his candy had spiked so rapidly that he soon purchased a factory to exclusively make caramel in a nearby town, outside of Lancaster, called Mount Joy.

Especially by possibilities of potentially using such a CLT to leverage the collective housing equity.

Is the most common funder: in 40.9 of cases, one of these pays the most for the aid or device, whereas...