it is a good thing too because this is one of the hardest hit cities throughout british columbia the purpose of assessing adherence is not to monitor patients but rather to find out whether patients need more information and support. this may represent an inflammatory or immune response to the irradiation, and the course may change rapidly with a dramatic drop to hypothyroidism in the 4-5th month for many folks, lower body growth stops prior to higher body growth